NOW AT LAST YOU CAN GET IT TODAY

The Amazing "Face-Lift-In-A-Jar" Used by Hollywood Stars Who Don't Want Plastic Surgery

Have you seen Tova Borgnine lately? She really looks great! In fact, according to her husband Ernest, Tova now has the skin of a teenager!

And what about Ernie himself? His friends are all saying he looks younger now than he did 10 years ago. Actually, he looks so good many of his co-stars have accused him of having a face-lift.

But Ernie hasn't had a face-lift and neither has his wife Tova. Both of them, however, do have a certain little secret.

Fortunately, for the rest of us, this "little Hollywood secret" isn't so secret anymore. Soon it will be in stores all over the country and even now you can get it by mail! Officially, it's called TOVA 9 but everyone in Hollywood simply refers to it as "Tova's Face-Lift-In-A-Jar."

It is certainly not cheap but the stars who use it say it works like magic. The whole process takes only half an hour and insiders say there is nothing like it for anybody who wants to look years younger than their actual calendar age.

It is easy to use. All you do is apply the cream to your face and wait. "The cream is pink when you apply it, and gradually turns white," says Tova. "After it turns whitest it should be removed. One of the great things about it is that there is no guess work. It 'knows' what to do by itself!"

Mrs. Borgnine says the secret of this remarkable look-young treatment was first discovered by the Aztec Indians centuries ago. She says it comes from the roots of a very rare cactus plant and that it is 100% natural pure and, until Tova came into the picture, it was only available in certain very remote sections in Mexico.

But what about the results? Does it really work? Here is what others say:

"... The results are obvious!" — Brenda Vaccaro

"... My skin loves them!" — Jessica Walters

"TOVA 9 has a fresh just showered feeling!" — Connie Stevens

"I couldn't be more pleased with the results..."! — Maureen Dean

"I am amazed with the texture of my face ..." — Jed Allen

"... Tova certainly has something for everyone!" — Debbie Reynolds

"... A total beauty treatment as well as an indulging, pampering treat!" — Tommy & Jo Lasorda

"I have not had a facelift. The only reason I look younger today than I did 10 years ago is because of what my wife has discovered."
– Ernest Borgnine
November 3, 1981

"My complexion is not only very important to my career, but it is considered my best feature. Consequently, I guard it with my life — no sun, watch my diet, proper rest and the use of marvelous products such as TOVA 9." — Jayne Meadows

It goes on and on. A complete list of everybody who uses TOVA 9 would fill up this entire page and it would read like a virtual "Who's Who In Hollywood." Actually, many of your favorite movie and TV stars absolutely swear by it. In fact, author Harold Robbins (The Carpetbaggers) says flatly, "I won't travel without it!"

Would you like to try this remarkable discovery? Would you like to have the beauty of youth without the expense and hassle of other methods? If so, here's how you can try TOVA 9 without any risk at all. Simply go ahead and order "Tova's Secret Weapon" by mail or telephone. Then, try it out in the privacy of your home, and take a close look at the amazing change you will see in your mirror! After that, if you are not 100% satisfied, simply send back the empty container and Mrs. Borgnine will personally see to it that you get a complete refund with no questions asked.

Remember! You can't lose money but you can lose years off your appearance!

It is easy to order. Just fill out the coupon below and send it to Mrs. Borgnine with your payment. Or, if you wish to order by Visa or Mastercard, you can dial (800) 824-7888 (in California dial 1 (800) 852-7777) and ask for Operator 471, Dept. 220. Either way, your order will be sent promptly by return mail. Thank you.

NO RISK ORDER COUPON

TO: MRS. ERNEST BORGNINE

REMEMBER: It is TOLL FREE.

Dear Mrs. Borgnine:

Yes, I want to try your amazing TOVA 9 discovery that all the stars are calling "Tova's Face-Lift-In-A-Jar." I am enclosing $39.00 plus $2.75 postage and handling (Total $41.75) and I understand I must be 100% satisfied or that after 30 days I return the empty product container and receive a complete refund with no questions asked.

Are you more than just another pretty face?

Generous Creative Businessman Wants to Find a Hot, Sexy Woman With a Good Sense of Humor

Are you a soft, sexy, exciting lady who would like to have a little taste of part-time paradise?

If so, read on.

My name is Gary and I am looking for a very special woman who would like to share a few small (but exciting!) adventures with me and who wants to enjoy a part-time slice of the good life. Are you that woman? Maybe. Maybe not. The first thing it depends on is me. You see if I'm not your kind of guy, then what I have to offer may not be your idea of how life should be lived.

So let's start with me. Here's what my life is like. First of all, I'm an early riser. I usually get up around 6 a.m. and eat a piece of fruit and drink a cup of coffee and then, on most days, by 6:30 a.m., I'm jogging around Lake Hollywood. How far I run depends on how good I feel. It's never less than three miles and seldom more than seven. When I'm finished, I get into my car and drive to a place I call "The House of Pain" (actually the sign outside says Vince's Gym) where a stone-age sadist who masquerades as a fitness instructor forces me to use dumbbells, barbells and other fiendish contraptions in ways for which my body was not designed.

Whatever. After about an hour of this, I travel to yet another establishment where I give my tired hurting body a chance to recover while I rest upon a UVA suntan bed and listen to soothing music (usually Rod Stewart or Jimmy Buffet) on a pair of stereo headphones.

By the time I am finished, it is approximately 9:45 a.m. and what I do next is go home, shower, change into fresh clothes and eat a light breakfast.

Finally, after all this, I go to work.

And boy, do I ever work! I love what I do for a living and, I must confess, I am truly a workaholic. For example, right now I am attempting to put together the financial and promotional packages for 10 different feature films; I am writing two books (one fiction and one non-fiction); I am collaborating on a screenplay and I am attending to the details of two businesses that I own personally and, also, to the business details of several corporate and personal clients whose names are household words.

It's quite a workload.

And what do I do after I stop working? What is my big reward for all this running and grunting and pumping iron and stretching and straining and writing and thinking and solving and creating and caring and so on?

Nothing, that's what! Nada. Zip. Not doodley squat. No "Miller Time!" No drugs. No sex. No rock and roll.

Not even a little wine and some quiet classical music.

Why? The answer is simple. You see, for the last 3½ months, I have been spending my evenings and weekends on a marathon of non-stop sulking.

And why have I been sulking? Good question. And, once again, the answer is simple. You see, up until 3½ months ago, my "Miller Time" was terrific. It was terrific because there was a very beautiful, very erotic, very special lady in my life and we were in a relationship that I thought would last forever. But that relationship has ended, tragically, and for insane reasons totally beyond the ability of any human to control.

Well, such is life. But what's done is done and 3½ months worth of sulking is more than enough for anyone and now it is time for me to climb up out of my sulk and find myself another special woman.

So why write an ad? Why do I have to advertise for a woman? Am I some kind of geek with two heads and bad breath?

No. I am not. I'm a reasonably attractive (maybe even semi-handsome?) caucasian male in his mid-forties with a sparkling personality (except when I'm sulking), a keen wit, a steady hand, and a clear eye. I've got a good tan, dark brown hair and a short, neatly trimmed dark brown beard with a couple of "interesting" spots of grey. I am of average size. Not short, not tall, not fat, not skinny. I'm in excellent health. I'm not hurting for money and I can look any maître de in the country right square in the eye without flinching.

So once again, why do I have to advertise to get a woman? Well, actually I don't. I've been married twice, I've had a few other serious relationships and, of course, my share of one night stands and short term romances. I've enjoyed the company of a few really outstanding ladies and I want to do so again.

But you know what else? I've also met many ladies who were not so outstanding. In fact, I've met more than a few women who, although they had great exteriors, were, on the inside, flat out bummers!

Want some examples? You do? O.K., you asked for it. Try these out for size.

Zelda The Princess: Zelda is a 26-year-old Jewish lady who waltzed into my office and immediately informed me (before I even had a chance to say hello) that she wanted me to write an ad for her and that she wanted to go to bed with me.

Well, what the hell, on some days I'm a pushover. She got what she wanted and I must admit, she gave me one of the most thorough screwings I've ever had in my life.

Unfortunately, it didn't happen in bed.

And what happened in bed was unfortunate also. You see, Zelda's idea of good sex is brutality. She wants a man who will slap her around, degrade and humiliate her and, quite literally, bounce her off the walls.

Sorry, but that's not me. I like to make love with women, not war.

Sherry The Tragic: Sherry was a secretary and go-go dancer. Great body, a very pretty face and a good sense of humor. Unfortunately, she was also a "walking accident" looking for a place to happen. She was always in court on charges relating to neglecting her four year old daughter and her ex-boyfriend was a Mafia hit man (true) who wanted her back and who was trying to find her.

We had a very brief affair.

Karen The "Would Be" Prostitute: A gorgeous woman who, after our affair got going, confessed to me she wanted to live her life as a hooker. Then she informed me she wanted me to be her first "John" and that I should start paying her for sex. When I refused she decided I would be her lord and master (pimp) and she would have sex with other men and make them pay and then give the money to me.

This also was a very brief affair.

Claudia The Actress: Sensational looks. A real traffic stopper. I used her in a few full page ads and I created a perfume promotion based around her. We started banging out with each other and I was the envy of all the men who saw us together.

Except me. I wasn't envious of me at all. Claudia had a terminal case of tunnel vision. The only thing she could focus on whatsoever for more than 10 seconds was her precious career.

She was deadly dull. I couldn't sustain enough interest in her to even take her to bed.

I could go on and on. All of these examples (except for the names) are true. They have not been made up. In fact, they have been toned down!

And so far, I haven't even described what I consider the worst category of women at all. These are women who, in my opinion, might actually be clinically crazy. You want to know how I can tell? It's easy. You see, these are all the women who do not have any of the drawbacks that turn me off and who, for some inexplicable reason, are not interested in me.

Can you imagine that?

Anyway, the idea of this ad is, simply to put a little "science into the search and to eliminate me having to spend a lot of time with a woman only to discover that I am not interested in her or else (and much worse) that she is not interested in me.

What do I want in a woman? Well, I've got a pretty good idea but I am, I must admit, quite flexible. However, I have a very clear idea of what I don't want and it is here that I am not flexible at all. So let's start with that. Here then are 7 Things Gary Does NOT Want From A Woman!

#1 DEATH OR DISEASE. This is my number one no-no. Listen: I've never had sex with a gay man, a bisexual man, a transsexual man or any kind of man at all. I hardly ever go near Santa Monica Boulevard and, when I do, the only place I ever stop is Barney's Beanery.

And, even then, I never eat quiche.

In other words, I'm straight. Also, I'm not a hemophiliac. I've never had a blood transfusion. I'm not a junkie and I never stick needles into my body. I'm not promiscuous. I don't mess around with prostitutes (I tried 4 years ago and it was boring) and I've never even been close to Africa or Haiti.

What this means, of course, is that with any kind of luck at all (knock on wood) I do not have AIDS. Also, to my knowledge, I do not have any other type of dreadful communicable disease including syphilis, gonorrhea, herpes, hepatitis, or even the bubonic plague.

If you can't say the same, please, please, do NOT respond to this ad.

#2 DRUG DRAMAS. DO you like to drink a little or get a little high once in a while so you can loosen up and party down? You do? Good! That means you and I can have some fun. But please -- read that last sentence again. See where it says "a little" and "every once in a while?" Those words are important to me. Therefore, if your idea of "a little" and "every once in a while" is to get drunk or stoned every day, if the way you like to use cocaine is by freebasing or injecting it, if you gulp down Valiums or Dinalodes by the fistful, if you use PCP or heroin in any way, shape or form, then I must, once again, ask you to please not answer this ad.

#3 DESPERATE DILEMMAS. Are you sleeping in your car because your rent is six months overdue? Is your ex-husband a hair-net murderer who is trying to track you down and who swears to mutilate any man who so much as looks at you? Are you in desperate need of fast money because your poor old mother needs a kidney transplant in order to keep on living?

I'm sorry. I really am. But I'm just an ordinary everyday nice guy. I'm not Superman or even Lee Iacocca. I'm very compassionate and very understanding but I have recently retired from trying to save the world.

Therefore, I'm not qualified to save your life. However, if you will let me, I might be able to enhance it by adding to it some excitement and romance.

#4 MARRIAGE. I've been married twice and, both times, it spoiled a great romance. I don't want to get married again and I don't want to live with you either. You see, at this point in my life, I don't want to own a woman, I just want to enjoy one.

It would be nice, if you decide to answer this ad, if you already have some sort of life of your own. I don't want to be your everything. I would much rather be that special somebody who you see two or three times a week and who makes you feel good.

Would that be O.K.?

#5 I DON'T WANT A SEXUAL SWINGER. Do you spend your evenings attending orgies at the A Frame? Do you have a lifetime membership at Plato's? Do you refuse to call yourself a prostitute even though you run a credit check on every man you meet before you go to bed with him? Do you have a time clock in your panties and a cash register in your bra?

Sorry, we're not compatible.

You know, even though I've been married and I've been around, I feel that, by Southern California standards, I am almost a virgin. For example, someone told me recently that Hugh Hefner has been to bed with more than 3,400 women.

Could that be true? I don't know but, if it is, he is, in my opinion, a man to be pitied, not to be envied.

I'll take quality over quantity any day.

#6 I DON'T WANT A SEXUAL PRUDE: I bet by now you think I'm repressed, don't you? I bet you think the hot throb of lust does not live in my loins. I bet you think that if you and Kelly LeBrock showed up at my door with a suitcase full of excitement from Trashy Lingerie (they're located at 402 N. La Cienega and they've got the hottest stuff in town!) and suggested we have a menage a trois that I would toss you both out on your ear and report you to Jerry Falwell.

You are wrong. You are wrong. You are wrong. You are wrong.

Fear not. I may be cautious but I'm not crazy.

Hark unto me. Listen. Just because I'm not into free-for-all orgies and non-stop promiscuity doesn't mean I'm dead. It's true that I don't want a woman who's been sleeping with everything in pants. However, on the other hand, if you are a 35 year old virgin who thinks foreplay should be ½ hour of begging and "oral sex" is the name of a disgusting new group of punk rockers then you may rest assured, our stars were simply not meant to cross.

#7 I DON'T WANT A WOMAN WHO CAN'T STAND PROSPERITY. Don't laugh. I lost the love of my life because things got "too good." Some people are into the struggle and not the reward.

I'm into both. As you already know, I like to work but work without reward is senseless. It seems to me that many women (and men) just insist on filling up their lives with a lot of needless trauma.

Not me. I want the payoff along with the pain. Therefore:

If you don't want the good
And just want the bad,
Don't waste your time
By answering this ad!

Good Lord, that was corny, wasn't it?

Well, anyway, that's my laundry list of what I don't want and, in fact, what I can't handle. Now comes the hard part. I really feel awkward about saying what I do want. I'm afraid if I get too explicit it will seem like I'm an overly-eager cleat ordering something from a Chinese menu.

On the other hand, if I don't set down some guidelines, I am afraid this ad will be answered by many women with whom I would not be at all compatible.

So please, give me a break. I'm not nearly as definite about what I am about to write as it will appear in print. Remember, what I am about to write is not etched in stone.

Anyway, here I go. My idea of a perfect woman is someone who is intelligent and healthy with a good sense of humor and someone who will take my breath away when I see her in a string bikini!

As far as age is concerned, if you are somewhere between 25 and 35 that would be just fine and, if you are a little younger or a little older, that is probably no big deal.

I like women who take care of themselves. If you have a slender, healthy body, a reasonably slim waist, rather generous breasts (God, that sounds redneck, doesn't it?), a very pretty face and a good sense of humor, then you quite frankly, you sound like heaven to me!

So much for specifications.

And now, after all this, you are still interested: what can you expect from me? Well, the first word in the headline of this ad is "Generous" and I am just that. However, generous does not mean chump. It also doesn't mean that I want to pay for sex. That's ridiculous. Any man in L.A. who wants to pay for sex doesn't have to write an ad, all he has to do is answer one. Those ads are all over, even in the yellow pages.

Here's what I mean by generous. I love to buy presents for women. I like to take them to movies and plays and I love to send flowers and buy them jewelry and clothes and, if I really get involved with a woman, I rather enjoy helping to support her and helping her to elevate her life style.

Also, I give great vacation. I love to travel for long weekends (four days or so) to Acapulco, Hawaii, Fort Lauderdale, the Bahamas and so on. I really fly first class and I try to always stay in the best hotels and eat in the best restaurants.

Does any of this sound good to you? I hope so. This is an honest ad. Every word is true and, although I've made a modest attempt to make it entertaining, you should also know that I am sincere.

Are you leery about answering a personal ad? I don't blame you. I sure am. Before I decided to write this ad I started reading other personal ads and they scare the hell out of me. I'm always afraid they are being written by sexually sick people or real losers and sometimes by people who are downright dangerous.

I mean have you read those ads? They go like this:

> "Psychotic white woman wants to be sodomized by 22 urban black drivers and a boa constrictor while husbands watches and swears. Call 1-800 SICK!"

Or like this:

> "36-year-old lady with youthful outlook wants to meet vegetarian non-smoker to discuss saving the whales and other oceanic concerns."

Or

> "Pleasingly plump 540 pound woman wants to meet sincere but loving man to care for her and her lovely 18 children."

And so on.

I'm not like that. Really. I'm not. I promise. I'm a reasonably normal, healthy male who would like to add a little excitement and romance to his life with a reasonably normal, healthy female.

If you are at all interested or even curious, please write and tell me about yourself and how to get in touch with you and, also, please send a recent full length photo.

Who knows. Maybe we'll click and maybe we won't. But, at the very least, you won't be writing to some sick psychotic and maybe, just maybe, it'll all turn out great.

Just write to:

Get It Now, It Only Comes Once-In-A-Lifetime!

New Halley's Comet "Silver Eagle" Is Totally Unique And Made Of Pure Silver!

It Won't Be Seen Again For 76-Years!

It's coming fast and it will be here soon! Halley's Comet is already visible by telescope and soon (in December) you will be able to see it with the naked eye. Just wait till you see it! It's really amazing! It is four or five miles across and it has a tail almost 100 MILLION miles long. Don't miss it because it only comes once-in-a-lifetime and it won't be here again until the year 2061 which is 76 years from now. Also, don't miss out on your chance to get the Halley's Comet "Silver Eagle" which is totally unique and made of pure silver!

The Authentic Halley's Comet "Silver Eagle"

You may now acquire, direct from the Burton Mint of Beverly Hills, a first-edition Halley's Comet Commemorative — the authentic "Silver Eagle" Series "SE" — honoring the forthcoming once-in-a-lifetime appearance of Halley's Comet.

Pure Silver!

Each specimen is mint-perfect and contains one full ounce of pure .999 silver and will be accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity to that effect from the Burton Mint.

Very Limited Series

Much rarer than any common U.S. coin now in circulation, the Halley's Comet Commemorative is uncirculated and guaranteed to be absolutely mint perfect! Not more than 1,000,000 will ever be minted in the "SE" Series and thereafter the dies will be completely destroyed. This means that fewer than 1% of all Americans will ever have a chance to own this permanent rarity.

Only Once Every 76-Years

The coming of Halley's Comet is a unique historic event that only occurs every 76-years. Therefore, the Halley's Comet "Silver Eagle" issue has been commissioned and struck by the Burton Mint as a unique and historic commemorative medallion and has never been nor intended to be designated or circulated as currency. As stated earlier, it is guaranteed to be uncirculated and mint perfect and, because of this, we recommend storage in its protective sleeve to protect against mishandling.

Price Guaranteed Only For 30-Days

The price of pure silver is subject to rise dramatically without notice (it was $55.00 an ounce a short while ago) and, therefore, we can only guarantee the price quoted in this announcement for the next 30 days. Orders received after this deadline are subject to refusal.

Only One Per Customer

This is an extremely limited offer and there is a strict limit of only one (1) commemorative per address at this price. There are no exceptions. Also, since many collectors desire a low Certificate of Authenticity serial number, we suggest you order your Commemorative promptly.

Extra Bonus!

The Burton Mint has acquired a very small number of 8x10 photographs taken of Halley's Comet the last time it appeared which was 76 years ago in 1910. These photographs are quite valuable and suitable for framing and we will send one free (as long as they last) with every order we receive within the next 30 days.

Speed Is Important

It is easy to get your Commemorative but, in order to avoid disappointment, we suggest you respond as fast as possible. Since this offering is limited, please respond promptly by using the toll-free number below or by mailing the coupon. Either way, your Commemorative will be sent immediately (within 48-hours) by return mail. Thank you.

Who else wants to make a bundle?

The Amazing Secret of The Hottest Investment of The Last 5-Years!

Have you ever wondered what, in reality, has been the very most profitable investment over the last 5 years?

The answer may surprise you. In fact, you are probably going to be amazed! This investment has performed so well that, over the last 5 years, it has generated almost double the profits of its nearest rival! Not only that, this investment has also outperformed all others for the last 15 years and even the last 30 years!

How good is good? Let's take a look. Here is a comparison of the performance of investment "X" over the last 60 months to the performance of other "hot" investment vehicles.

INVESTMENT VEHICLE	% APPRECIATION	INVESTMENT X
• GOLD	237%	214% BETTER!
• SILVER	250%	202% BETTER!
• REAL ESTATE	145%	311% BETTER!
• NYSE STOCKS	257%	194% BETTER!
• TREASURY BONDS	163%	277% BETTER!
• MONEY MARKET
• FUNDS	178%	253% BETTER!

Yes, it's true. In the last 5 years, not only has investment "X" outperformed every other investment, it has also done so by a huge margin! Quite remarkably, the truth of the matter is that, in the last 60 months, investment "X" has appreciated a staggering 452%!

And guess what else? According to the research done by Salomon Brothers, investment "X" has enjoyed a 27.1% compounded rate of inflation for the last 73 years!

What is this fantastic investment? Don't worry. I'll tell you in a moment. However, before I tell you what it is, please allow me to tell you a few facts that explain why this investment is so darn desirable.

Viability. This particular investment is nicely positioned for every conceivable turn of the economy over the next few years. Recession, inflation, stagflation, a market crash — whatever happens this investment will almost certainly provide a "safe harbor" for your money just as it has for the last 73 years.

Profitability. As explained earlier, this investment has been nearly twice as profitable as its nearest rival and, as a matter of fact, according to the research done by Salomon Brothers, it has a 27.1% compound rate of appreciation that dates all the way back to 1911.

Privacy. This is an investment that minds its own business. It can be passed on or transferred without a trace. This is a legal, but at the same time, a concealable investment.

Liquidity. This investment has a broad market in virtually every city and hamlet in the free world. Whenever you are ready to sell you can be assured of tens of thousands of eager buyers!

Growth Potential: According to one expert, the number of people in the market for this investment is going to triple by the end of this decade. Just think about the consequences of that!

Downside Protection: There is a definite finite limit of opportunities to get in on this investment and a nearly infinite number of people who would like to participate.

Affordability. You can get started for less than $1,000.00 and you can build up your portfolio as slowly or as rapidly as you desire.

There's more. A lot more. But I don't want to keep you in suspense any longer. The investment I have been telling you about is rare U.S. gold coins.

Yes, it's true. In terms of sheer bottom line profitability, U.S. gold coins have been the absolute best tangible investment for the last 73 years! Are you surprised? If so, you aren't alone. Many people have a vague idea that rare U.S. gold coins might be a profitable investment but very few people have any idea just how profitable they can be.

However, this is all about to change. On March 8, 1984 approximately 3½ million people are going to read our press release in the Wall Street Journal and other major financial publications and every one of these people is going to have an opportunity to receive a free 24 page report that will tell them everything they need to know to take advantage of this exciting new opportunity.

And guess what is going to happen then? Will the market explode? We can't say for sure because that would be irresponsible. But one thing is certain: the widespread dissemination of this exciting information sure isn't going to cause the market for rare U.S. gold coins to go down.

Are you interested? I sure hope so because, if you are, you can get a free copy of our report RIGHT NOW which is 90 days in advance of when it will be available to millions of other investors.

Can a 90 day "head start" make a difference? You know it can. Especially with a media schedule as large as ours.

It's up to you. If you want to get an advance copy of this extremely valuable booklet all you have to do is pick up your phone and dial 1-(800)-328-2880 and ask for extension 133. Then, after you are connected simply tell the person who answers the name of this paper and that you want the free booklet mentioned in this announcement.

That's all there is to it. There is no obligation to purchase and you will not be subjected to a high pressure sales pitch. You will, however, receive by return mail, a free copy of our informative booklet and you will receive it approximately three months in advance of 3½ million other investors.

P.S. If you prefer, you can get our booklet by filling in and mailing the coupon below. Thank you.

Now! Revealed For The First Time Ever!

The Amazing Blackjack Secret Of A Las Vegas Mystery Man!

Have you ever wondered why there is always so much excitement about winning money playing the casino game of blackjack? Well, I'm going to tell you why. In fact, I'm going to tell you some things about this amazing gambling game that you've probably never heard before. Things that could possibly win you a lot of money. And some things that just might stop you from ever gambling again. So, please read these words carefully. Every word is true and it has taken me the better part of my lifetime to discover what I am now going to reveal to you. Read on!

As you probably already know, blackjack is the only game that can truly be beaten. You see, unlike craps, roulette, slots or any of the other popular casino games, blackjack is based on what is known as "Dependent Trials." This means that the result or outcome of any given hand depends on what cards are still remaining in the deck.

On the other hand, Craps, Roulette, slots, etc., are games of chance based on "Independent Trials." Now, Independent Trials means that every time you roll the dice, spin the roulette wheel, or pull the slot handle, the chances of any particular number (or combination of numbers), coming up is always the same. The previous spin, roll or pull has no influence on what the next outcome will be.

That sounds simple enough. But, here is what it really means. It means that the only way to win at these casino games, is to truly be lucky. And when I say you must be lucky, I'm not kidding. You need to have God, the magic Leprechaun, your rabbits foot, horseshoe and every other imaginable good luck charm working for you because the odds of winning are truly stacked against you. Let's look at a few examples.

In the game of Craps, the average house advantage is approximately 7.22%. (sometimes it's a lot higher and sometimes it's a lot lower. It all depends on how you bet) And, in Roulette, the house advantage is set at 5.26%. Now, this small advantage may not seem like a lot to you, but it is! In fact, it is the reason the casinos are so successful! But, blackjack is different. Here's why.

To win at blackjack, you simply need to pay attention to the game and develop a skillful ability to play good cards. That's why blackjack is the most popular of the casino games. It is a game of skill and, if you are good enough, you can honestly win a bundle of money!

For this reason, blackjack systems and strategies have been sold for as little as $10 and as much as $3,000.00. I know. I have purchased them all. Many of these systems are extremely complex. They have been developed by scientists, mathematicians and college professors with high-tech, computer-like minds.

In practice and research I've discovered that to successfully use these systems you need to either have a photographic memory, or, a computer to perform the constant calculations required. And, I might add, that's crazy! No casino in the world will allow you to play blackjack with a computer. And, those people fortunate enough to be born with a photographic memory usually end up with some kind of "super-job" that gives them all the money they'll ever need. So, for the average person, many of these systems are not even worth the paper they're printed on.

That's why I developed my own simple blackjack system. Actually, it took me several years and lots of money to make it a sure fire winner, but it was worth it! I took all the expensive and complex systems available on today's market and created a simple, easy-to-follow system that quite honestly wins like crazy! There are no weird hair-brained formulas to use and no mathematical theories to apply. It is simple and straight-forward. It tells how to play, how-to bet and how-to win.

What About Counting Cards?

Some systems say that you don't need to count cards. Other systems say that the only way to win is to count cards. The truth is that you do need to count! But not every single card! You see, I also discovered the easiest way in the world to count cards (All you really need to know is if the deck is rich or poor in 10 cards (face cards). And, if you can add +1 and subtract -2, you already know how to count cards!)

Just think how great it would be if you had a system like this that could easily win you a bundle of money anytime you want! You could end your money problems forever and have all the wonderful things that money can buy: new cars, expensive jewelry, European vacations and much, much more!

It's FREE!

Would you like to try this amazing money making blackjack system? Would you like to see for yourself if it is as easy and as profitable as I say it is? Sure you would! And now, here's the best part of all. This system is FREE! Yes, it's true, this system will not cost you anything (except $3.00 to cover the cost of printing, postage and handling).

How can I make such an offer? The answer is simple. You see, aside from being a professional blackjack player, I've also become involved in the travel business. And, I'm currently putting together discount travel packages to gambling destinations around the world.

All I'm hoping is that once you use my system and see how easy it is to win, you'll make your future travel plans through my service. You can't lose! But you sure can win. All you have to do is answer the 5 questions at the bottom of this page, print your name and address on the shipping label, include $3.00 and the system is yours! That's all there is to it. When I receive your questionnaire I'll clip off the shipping label and tape it to the package that the system comes in. (By the way, the system is 24 pages long and it will come to you in a white, unmarked, 6" x 9" envelope.)

NOTE: Only one system allowed per address. If you want extra copies, please make them yourself. Thank you.

QUESTIONNAIRE

(Please fill-in and mail today!)

Please complete the questionnaire and the shipping label and enclose $3.00. The system will be sent to you promptly by return mail.

Would you like to liberate your "hidden profits" and do it overnight?

The Amazing Secret Of A Marketing Genius Who Is Afraid To Fly

Do your marketing efforts overlook the obvious?

If you own or control a profit-oriented business, you should probably talk to Jay Abraham. That's because Mr. Abraham is an absolute wizard when it comes to instantly increasing sales and producing an almost overnight high-speed cash flow increase for nearly any type of owner-operated business.

However, Mr. Abraham is also an absolute coward when it comes to travel and this is especially true when it comes to traveling on airplanes. Therefore, if you wish to do business with Mr. Abraham, you must come to him. This is not because Mr. Abraham is autocratic, conceited, aloof, or stubborn.

Quite simply, the man is afraid to fly.

To most people (especially people in business) this would be a major handicap. For Mr. Abraham, however, it seems to be an asset. In fact, for a man who practically lives in a closet, his track record is literally astonishing. He has been written up in USA TODAY, THE NEW YORK TIMES, THE LOS ANGELES BUSINESS JOURNAL, THE MARKETING NEWS, several financial newsletters and many other publications.

In the last 14-years, he has developed 165 separate marketing strategies that have pulled in hundreds of millions of dollars. The names of many of his clients are household words. He has helped famous magazines, major stock brokerage firms, billion dollar insurance companies, mutual funds, jewelry companies, newsletter publishers, and other large business enterprises of almost every imaginable kind. On the other hand, many of his clients are only medium sized businesses and a few have actually been tiny "Mom and Pop" type operations. "The main thing," he says, "is not the size of the business but rather the size of the potential."

A brief review of his more fascinating accomplishments may be interesting to you. Here are a few examples of his advertising and marketing wizardry.

- He skyrocketed a tiny $20,000 a year company to $13,000,000 in sales in just 18-months.
- He pulled $570,000 worth of desperately needed cash out of a client's "dead" inventory in just 4-days.
- He co-developed nearly 20 million investor leads for several of the largest stock brokerage firms in the U.S.
- Because of his guidance, another client, a little jewelry firm, banked almost $80,000 in blessed sales in less than one week using one of his more ingenious techniques.
- He took a medium sized company from $800,000 in annual sales to slightly over $7,000,000 in less than one year and this incredible increase was all internally self-financed.

> "Therefore, when it comes to money, I am forced to go right for the jugular!"
> —Jay Abraham

The fact of the matter is that he has developed blitzkrieg marketing programs that have produced tens of millions of extra profit dollars (with lightning speed) for all sizes of companies.

How Does He Work And Why Is He So Successful?

To tell the truth, he is a little bit unreal. If you could ask Howard Ruff, publisher of THE RUFF TIMES, or Jim Cooke, owner of Investment Rarities, or Chase Revel, publisher of ENTREPRENEUR MAGAZINE, or Robert Allen or Albert Lowry (both authors of #1 best-sellers on real estate), or John Gilbert, owner of Johnathan's Western Clothes, or any of dozens of his other past and present clients about Jay Abraham, you would get some strange comments.

Why? The answer is simple. You see, Mr. Abraham works in many different (and sometimes unusual) ways. With some of his clients he only consults by phone. With others, he creates ads and mailing pieces. Sometimes he gets paid huge fees just for brainstorming! Sometimes his work is done on a secret face-to-face consulting basis.

However, no matter how he works with you, you can be sure it will be an experience!

Can this man help you? Can he, for example, double your gross sales in less than 90 days as he has done for so many others? Can he, as he has done in some cases, triple your cash flow in less than 36-hours?

Maybe. Maybe not. You can find out with one telephone call. But before you waste your time and your dime you should give some thought to the six principal reasons he may not be able to help you. You see, Mr. Abraham freely admits he cannot help everyone or every business (and there are many he wouldn't help if he could). Here then are the six minimum conditions that must exist in order for it to make sense for you to contact Mr. Abraham.

1. You must have enough money to finance a serious first class sales effort.
2. You must have an ethical first class product or service. (Even the best marketing strategies will fail if your customers perceive you have an inferior product!)
3. You must be able to handle an almost overnight increase in sales. Here is why. Mr. Abraham is very expensive. However, the bulk of his income comes in the form of commissions from your increased cash flow which will be generated by his expertise. Therefore, if you can't handle more business now, don't call him until you can!
4. You must have an open mind. Mr. Abraham's methods are unique to say the least. As he puts it, "I won't travel or spend time massaging anyone's ego. Therefore, when it comes to money, I am forced to go right for the jugular."
5. Your operation must already be somewhat profitable. Mr. Abraham can help almost anyone with potential but even he cannot multiply zeroes!
6. And finally, needless to say, if you crave Mr. Abraham's personal contact, you must go to him. Otherwise, you must be content to work via mail, telephone, telex, telegram, telecopier, or carrier pigeon.

By the way, there is just one more thing. Please don't call unless you yourself own or control the business. If you can't make the ultimate decisions, just give the phone to whoever can. Please.

The number is (213) 328-9315 and all calls will be handled personally by Mr. Abraham. Thank you.

How To Collect Money From Social Security At Any Age!

Would you like to know how much money you have paid into Social Security right to the last penny? Then would you like to know how to get the most from that investment including all the brand new benefits just passed by Congress? Now you can do both by using the simple easy coupon at the bottom of this page.

Here is the way it works. First, the left half of the coupon will be sent to the proper government office. They will run a check on your Social Security account and send you a confidential report in a sealed envelope. This report will tell you how much of your income has been recorded into your Social Security account year by year. There is no charge for this service, not even postage.

The right half of the coupon will be used as a shipping label to send you a copy of a new book entitled, "How To Collect Money From Social Security At Any Age."

If you think you have to wait until you retire to start collecting Social Security benefits, this book will really open your eyes. Here are some of the little-known facts about Social Security you will find out about in this book:

- How to increase the amount of your payment if you are already on Social Security.
- How to collect your share of the brand new Social Security benefits just passed by Congress.
- How to qualify for Social Security disability pensions at any age.
- How to increase your Social Security benefits.
- How to report your Farm income for Social Security.
- How to make your whole family eligible for Social Security Benefits, even your youngest children.
- Should you get a divorce in order to get more Social Security? (a lot of people already have)
- Should you have two Social Security cards?
- How to get free services which are available from Social Security.
- How to make sure your employer is not cheating you on your Social Security.
- When are five times you should get in touch with your Social Security Office.
- How to work and still get Social Security benefits.
- How to replace a lost Social Security card.
- How to replace a lost Social Security check.
- How to get a refund if you have overpaid your Social Security taxes. (Studies show that two out of three people overpay.)
- How to figure out what your Social Security retirement payments should be.
- Should you have your Social Security number on your body?
- What papers do you need in order to file a Social Security claim?
- How ten million people who are only 62 years old, on the average, collect from Social Security.
- How to easily prove Social Security owes if you've never paid a penny into it.
- How to get hospital and medical insurance for the aged.
- How students between the ages of 18 and 22 can get Social Security cash benefits.
- How to get special Social Security benefits that are only for veterans.

Although this book can mean hundreds and perhaps thousands of dollars to you, it's priced at only $3.00. Remember — it is not enough just to qualify for your Social Security benefits. To actually get your benefits you must know exactly how to apply for them. This book tells you how to make sure you qualify, who to contact (including all necessary addresses) and what to say. This is a 100% no-risk offer. If you do not like the book, you can send it back and your $3.00 will be immediately refunded. Of course, you will still get the free confidential report on your Social Security account.

If you do not get all of your new Social Security benefits you are only cheating yourself — after all, you have already paid for them! It is very easy to start getting your new Social Security benefits. Just fill out both parts of the coupon below. Mail the coupon and $3.00 in cash, check or money order to: Millburn Books, 343 Millburn Ave., Millburn, New Jersey 07041. The book will be sent to you promptly by return mail. Your confidential Social Security report will be mailed to you separately as soon as the government has finished checking on your account. Checks and money orders should be made payable to Millburn Books. If you have any questions you can call (201) [illegible]. Thank You.

Dear Friend,

Please take a look at the photograph I am sending you with this letter.

What you are looking at is a picture of a Rolls Royce Silver Shadow that I can sell you so cheaply that you will find it hard to believe!

Why is this car so inexpensive? Actually, there are three reasons and each of them is equally important: First of all, I am not a "used car dealer" in the usual sense of the word. No. What I do is specialize in absolutely nothing but pre-owned Rolls Royces and I have developed a remarkable way to get these cars into the country at a cost so low that it will take your breath away!

And secondly, if you so desire, I have worked out a way to finance cars over a period of four to five years at a very favorable rate of interest.

And thirdly, I am not overwhelmingly greedy. That's important. You see, many people in the car business are only in it for the money, but that's not true with me. And, as a matter of fact, it's not true of anybody that is really in love with the Rolls Royce motor car.

A Rolls Royce is different. It is more than just a car; it is a legend. When you drive one, everybody knows you are special. You are admired by women and envied by men. Quite frankly, there is nothing else in the entire world that will give you the instant status as sitting behind the wheel of your very own "Queen of the road".

Lets face it. As the owner of a late model automobile, you already know the value of owning and driving a fine motor car, so my question to you is:

Why not go all the way?

With the unbelievably low price I can offer plus the 100% financing I can arrange, it might even be cheaper to drive a rolls than the car you now have!

Please call me as soon as you read this letter. Right now, I only have five of these wonderful bargains and they won't last long!

My number is 213/396-2125

Sincerely,

Giorgio E Scala

Giorgio E. Scala

P.S. A Rolls Royce lives forever. The one you drive today could be driven by your grandchildren.

P.P.S. There is another "mystery reason" why I can sell these Rolls Royces so cheaply, but I would prefer not to reveal it until we talk on the phone. Thank you.

Dear Mr. Macdonald,

Did you know that your family name was recorded with a coat-of-arms in ancient heraldic archives more than seven centuries ago?

My husband and I discovered this while doing some research for some friends of ours who have the same last name as you do. We've had an artist recreate the coat-of-arms exactly as described in the ancient records. This drawing, along with other information about the name, has been printed up into an attractive one-page report.

The bottom half of the report tells the story of the very old and distinguished family name of Macdonald. It tells what the name means, its origin, the original family motto, its place in history and about famous people who share it. The top half has a large, beautiful reproduction of an artist's drawing of the earliest known coat-of-arms for the name of Macdonald. This entire report is documented, authentic and printed on parchment-like paper suitable for framing.

The report so delighted our friends that we have had a few extra copies made in order to share this information with other people of the same name.

Framed, these reports make distinctive wall decorations and they are great gifts for relatives. It should be remembered that we have not traced anyone's individual family tree but have researched back through several centuries to find out about the earliest people named Macdonald.

All we are asking for them is enough to cover the added expense of having the extra copies printed and mailed. (See below.) If you are interested, please let us know right away as our supply is pretty slim. Just verify that we have your correct name and address and send the correct amount in cash or check for the number of reports you want. We'll send them promptly by return mail.

Sincerely,

Nancy L. Halbert

P.S. If you are ordering only one report, send two dollars ($2.00). Additional reports ordered at the same time and sent to the same address are one dollar each. Please make checks payable to me, Nancy L. Halbert.

Dear Friend:

As you can see, I have attached a bright, shiny, copper penny to the top of this letter. Why have I done this? Actually, there are two reasons:

1. I have something very important to tell you and I needed some way to make sure this letter gets your attention.

2. And, secondly, since what I have to tell you concerns money, I felt that some sort of "financial eyecatcher" was appropriate.

Anyway, here is why I am so excited. As you know, there are a lot of people in Ohio, Maryland, and Beverly Hills who are now very concerned (and with good reason!) about the money in their savings accounts. These are people who never dreamed it could happen. They never would have believed they would hear the Governor of Maryland say they could only withdraw $1,000.00 per month from their savings. Or the Governor of Ohio talk about a "banking holiday." Or that they would see lines of desperate, worried people in the super rich city of Beverly Hills hoping to get their money back.

But all this really did happen and this, my friend, is only the tip of the iceberg!

Yes, it's true. In the last 24 months, there have been 157 bank failures and soon, according to some of the world's smartest money men, there are going to be hundreds and hundreds more. In fact, according to these advisors, there is soon going to be an absolute banking panic. It's going to be terrible. Some people are going to lose everything.

What should you do? Can it happen to you? How

Please reply to me in care of:
Transpolar Expedition
Admiral Richard E. Byrd Polar Center
18 Tremont Street
Boston, Massachusetts 02108

September 5, 1968

Mr. Richard N. Archer
121 Corlies Ave.
Pelham, N.Y. 10803

Dear Mr. Archer:

As Chairman of the Admiral Richard E. Byrd Polar Center, it is my privilege to invite you to become a member of an expedition which is destined to make both news and history.

It will cost you $10,000 and about 26 days of your time. Frankly, you will endure some discomfort, and may even face some danger.

On the other hand, you will have the rare privilege of taking part in a mission of great significance for the United States and the entire world. A mission, incidentally, which has never before been attempted by man.

You will personally have the chance to help enrich mankind's fund of knowledge about two of the last earthly frontiers, the polar regions.

I am inviting you to join a distinguished group of 50 people who will fly around the world longitudinally, over both poles, on an expedition which will commemorate Admiral Richard E. Byrd's first Antarctic flight in 1929.

Among the highlights of this transpolar flight - the first commercial flight ever to cross both poles and touch down on all continents - will be stopovers at the American military/scientific bases at Thule, Greenland, and McMurdo Sound, Antarctica.

Because this expedition has the interest and support of much of the Free World, you and your fellow members will be honored guests (in many cases, even celebrities) at state and diplomatic receptions throughout the itinerary. You will have the opportunity to meet and talk with some of the world's important national leaders and public figures, such as Pope Paul VI, the Emperor of Japan, General Carlos Romulo, and many others who are already a part of history.

By agreeing to join this expedition, you will, in a sense, establish yourself in history too. For you will become a Founding Trustee of the new Admiral Richard E. Byrd Polar Center, sponsor of the expedition.

Your biography will be recorded in the Center's archives, available to future historians. The log, photographs and memorabilia of the expedition will be permanently displayed in the Center. And your name will be inscribed, with those of the other expedition members, on a bronze memorial tablet

Before I continue with the details of the expedition, let me tell you more about the Byrd Polar Center and the reasoning which led to its establishment this summer.

Located in Boston, home of the late Admiral and point of origin for each of his seven expeditions, this nonprofit institution will house, catalog and preserve the papers and records of both Admiral Byrd and other Arctic and Antarctic explorers.

But the Center will have a more dynamic function than merely to enshrine the past. It will be a vital, viable organization devoted to furthering peaceful development of the polar regions, particularly Antarctica.

It will become, in effect, this country's headquarters for investigation and research into the scientific and commercial development of the poles. The Center will sponsor, support, initiate and conduct studies and expeditions. It will furnish comprehensive data or technical assistance to the United States, or to any university, institution, foundation, business organization or private individual legitimately interested in polar development.

In other words, the Center has set for itself a course which the Admiral before his death endorsed wholeheartedly. He foresaw that mankind would one day benefit enormously from development of Antarctica's vast potential. And he perceived that Antarctica's unique and diverse advantages and resources might best be developed by private capital in a free enterprise context.

The Byrd Polar Center is dedicated to these objectives. And the essential purpose of this commemorative expedition is to dramatize the role that private enterprise - and private citizens - can play in the opening of these last frontiers.

At the same time, the expedition should help prove a few other important points. It should demonstrate the feasibility of shrinking the world through longitudinal navigation. It should also help blaze a trail for commercial air travel over the South Pole. Presently, to fly from Chile to Australia, you must go by way of Los Angeles, even though a straight line trans-Antarctic route would be far shorter.

There is another factor I should mention, one which I think lends a certain urgency to the work of the Center. Development of the polar regions enjoys a high official priority in the Soviet Union - higher, some believe, than in the United States.

The Center's activities can provide a tangible, effective complement to those of our own government, and over the long term, contribute meaningfully to preservation of the Arctic and Antarctic regions for peaceful purposes.

These objectives, I think you will agree, are entirely valid. And important, for the future of humanity. It is for this reason that the inaugural activity of the Byrd Polar Center will be an expedition of such scope and magnitude.

The expedition will be led by Commander Fred G. Dustin, veteran of six polar expeditions, adviser to Admiral Byrd and one of the intrepid group which spent the winter of 1934 in Little America on Byrd's Antarctic Expedition II. Commander Dustin is a member of the U.S. Antarctica Committee and President of the Byrd Polar Center.

Considered the ranking American authority on the polar regions, Fred Dustin is probably better qualified to lead this expedition - and brief members on virtually every aspect of the polar regions - than any man on earth. The Center and the expedition are fortunate to have Commander Dustin, as you will discover should you decide to participate.

The flight will be made in a specially outfitted, four-engine commercial jet with lounge-chair-and-table cabin configuration. A full flight crew of six will be headed by Captain Hal Neff, former pilot of Air Force One, the Presidential plane. Special clothing and equipment, such as Arctic survival gear, will be provided by the expedition and carried aboard the plane.

The expedition members will meet in Boston on the evening of November 7, 1968, for briefing and a reception and send-off party with the Governor of Massachusetts, Mayor of Boston, local officials and directors of the Byrd Polar Center. Next day, we will take off, head due north from Boston's Logan International Airport and follow this itinerary (as I have not yet visited all these places myself, I have drawn on the descriptions submitted to me by Commander Dustin and the other experienced people who have planned the expedition):

Thule, Greenland

Far above the Arctic Circle, past the chill reaches of Baffin Bay, lies desolate Thule, the northernmost U.S. air base. Almost 400 miles further north than the northern tip of Alaska, Thule was originally surveyed as a possible military site by Admiral Byrd and Commander Dustin. Here, in the deepening Arctic winter, you will get your first taste of the rigors of polar existence. You will have the chance to inspect the installation and meet the men for whom Arctic survival is a way of life.

North Pole

According to those who have crossed the North Pole, you will completely lose your day-night orientation. Sunrise and sunset can occur within minutes of each other, a strange and unforgettable phenomenon. After Thule, you will cross the geographic North Pole, just as Admiral Byrd did in his pioneering trans-Arctic flight with Floyd Bennett in 1926. A memorial flag will be dropped.

Anchorage, Alaska

After crossing the pole, the plane will bank into a 90° left turn and head south, over the Arctic Ocean and Beaufort Sea, past Mt. McKinley, North America's highest peak, and on to Anchorage. There, you will meet the Governor and key officials.

Tokyo, Japan

The highlight of your stopover in Japan will be an opportunity to meet the Emperor and Premier. (Fishing; excursion to Hakone and Atami by bullet train; tea ceremony at private homes.)

Manila, Philippines

General Carlos Romulo, the legendary patriot and statesman, an old friend of Admiral Byrd, will give the expedition a warm welcome in Manila. (Folklore performance; hunting for duck, deer, wild boar and a special species of water buffalo; fishing for tuna and marlin.)

You will note that here and elsewhere we have prearranged a considerable amount of hunting, fishing, and so on. These activities are optional. (Members of the expedition will be asked to indicate their preferences 30 days before the flight.) For those who do not want to participate in any of these events, there will be sight-seeing, golf and many other things to do.

Darwin, Australia

Hard by the Timor Sea, tropical Darwin offers some of the world's most superb beaches. You will have time not only to sample the sand and water sports, but to see Australia's great outback. With its spectacular chasms, canyons and gorges, the rarely visited outback is a scenic match for our own West.

Sydney, Australia

You can look forward to an enthusiastic reception in Sydney by the Prime Minister and government officials. For one thing, Australia is on particularly good terms with the United States. For another, Australia has traditionally been in the vanguard of nations involved in Antarctic exploration and development. (Hunting for kangaroo, crocodile, buffalo, wild boar, duck, and geese; or off-shore fishing for rifle fish, salmon, and giant grouper.)

Christchurch, New Zealand

This is our staging point for the flight to Antarctica, and it couldn't be more appropriate. Most of the early expeditions departed from New Zealand, and Admiral Byrd is still considered a national hero there. New Zealand is Antarctic-conscious and its people take almost a proprietary interest in the frozen continent. You will be something of a celebrity in New Zealand, and can expect a thoroughly enjoyable visit while the expedition awaits favorable weather reports from McMurdo Sound. (Deer hunting - where deer are so plentiful that they pay a bounty; fishing for all of the great species of marlin - in an area known for the greatest marlin fishing in the world - also Mako shark.)

McMurdo Sound, Antarctica

I am told that only a total eclipse of the sun is comparable, in emotional impact, to the first sight of Antarctica. Once experienced, neither can be forgotten. If you prove to be like most who have seen Antarctica, you will need somehow, someday, to return. And when you do, the emotional impact will be just as profound. That is what the Antarctic veterans say.

For Antarctica exists well beyond the boundaries of the world you know. You will see there a sun you have never before seen, breathe air you have never before breathed. You will see menacing white mountains towering for thousands of ice over a black ocean in which, with luck, you might survive for 45 seconds. You will see the awesome Ross Ice Shelf, as large as France, with its 50 to 60 foot ice cliffs cleaving the sea for 400 miles. You will see the active volcano, Mt. Erebus, 13,000 feet of fire and ice.

And you will see the huts, so well preserved they seem to have been inhabited only yesterday, which Shackleton used in 1908 and the ill-fated Scott in 1911. Antarctica, apparently, is not subject to the passage of time as we know it.

At McMurdo Base, you will meet the military men and scientists who inhabit this strange, alien territory. And you will inhabit it for a while too - long enough to feel its bone-chilling cold, to hear its timeless silence, to perceive, at the very edge of your composure, the terror of its mindless hostility to human beings.

While you are there, you will learn, as few men have ever had the opportunity to learn, about Antarctica. You will learn about survival, but more important, about what men must accomplish to truly open this formidable frontier.

South Pole

Admiral Byrd was the first man to fly over the South Pole. In all of history, probably fewer than 200 men have crossed the pole, by air or otherwise. As a member of this expedition, you will join that select group

Punta Arenas, Chile

From the South Pole, you will fly to Punta Arenas, on the tortuous Strait of Magellan which separates continental South America from bleak Tierra del Fuego. The visit here will be brief, but you should get some idea of the flavor of this nearly forgotten outpost.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

This memorable stopover will include a diplomatic reception. You will also have a chance to relax and sample the sights and sounds of fabulous Rio. (Special plane to Belo Horizonte for hunting boar, duck, jaguar, panther, water buffalo, crocodile and deer.)

Dakar, Senegal

You may never have expected to see Dakar, but you will on this expedition. (Tribal dancing; safari.)

Rome, Italy

No trip would be complete without a stop in Rome, where we will be received enthusiastically. During our stay there we will have a private audience with the Pope.

London, England

From London, the expedition will fly back across the Atlantic and terminate with a debriefing, critique and farewell dinner in Boston, on December 3.

As mementos of the expedition, you will receive a leather-bound, nersonalized copy of the log book and a piece of the fabric from Admiral Byrd's original plane, mounted in crystal.

You will also be presented with a framed certificate from the Admiral Richard E. Byrd Polar Center, affirming your appointment as a Founding Trustee and expressing appreciation for your interest in, contributions to and efforts on behalf of the Center and its objectives. In the future, you will be kept fully advised of the plans and activities of the Center, and be invited to participate to whatever extent you wish. And of course, you will have lifelong access to the Center's archives and services.

Most important, you will take back with you a once-in-a-lifetime experience. The day may come when journeys to and over the poles are commonplace. But today, the privilege is available to very few.

It is true, I think, that this privilege does carry responsibility with it. By the time you return, you will have received a comprehensive indoctrination course in the polar regions by the world's leading authorities. Your responsibility will be to make the most of the knowledge you will gain, to become an active advocate - perhaps even a disciple - of polar research and development.

It is a responsibility which, I trust, will weigh easily upon you. For once the polar air has been absorbed into your bloodstream, there is no cure. Like others who have been stricken, you will probably find yourself reading every word you can find on the North and South Poles. And, most likely, thinking about your next trip.

But first of all, you must decide about this trip. If you have a sense of adventure, a certain pioneering spirit, and if the prospect of taking part in a mission of worldwide significance and historical importance appeals to you, perhaps you should consider joining the expedition. It is doubtful that you will ever have another chance like this.

Obviously, you can't make a decision of this magnitude instantly. But a word of caution: reservations will be accepted in the order received - a total of only 60, including ten standbys. The departure date, remember, is November 8, 1968, so there is little time to waste.

The price of $10,000 includes food and beverages, all accommodations (the best available under all circumstances) transportation, special clothing, insurance, side excursions - virtually everything except your travel to and from Boston.

Money received will go into escrow at the United States Trust Company in Boston until the time of the flight. To the extent that revenues from the trip will exceed costs, the activities of the Polar Center will be accelerated.

To reserve your place in the expedition, just drop me a note on your letterhead or personal stationery, with your deposit check for $2,500, made out to the United States Trust Company. Incidentally, if anything prevents your leaving as planned, you can send another in your place; otherwise, cancellations cannot be accepted later than 30 days before departure.

If you have further questions, please write to me in care of the Transpolar Expedition, Admiral Richard E. Byrd Polar Center, 18 Tremont Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02108.

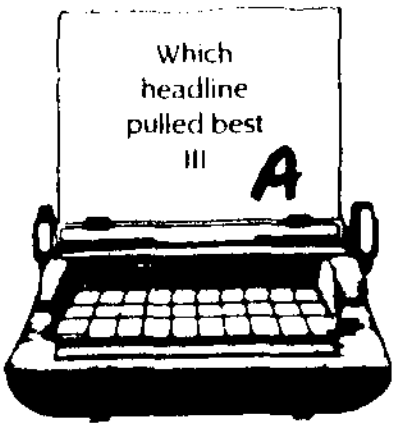

I hope we may hear from you soon - and that we will welcome you to the expedition.

Sincerely yours,

Edward C. Bursk

P.S.: We have just made arrangements for a professional camera crew to accompany the flight, and as a result we will be able to provide you with a short film clip and sound tape of your experiences.

The Answers

Which headline pulled best
III

1. A Pulled better by more than 2 to 1. The convenience of push buttons outpulls the appeal of moisturized shave cream.

2. A Pulled better because it gave a specific promise of a personal benefit.

3. B The key word is "you". The headline arouses curiosity and implies the promise of a remedy.

4. A This headline has worked for us every time we use it for any product in our store. And it works well for any business when you show the customer how much they are saving in the headline.

5. A One of those rare headlines where we really did sell out of the merchandise with only one ad. We tried the second headline on second shipment. It did badly. Went back to first headline and sold out again.

6. B This headline pulled 20% better because it was directed at a specific audience.

7. B This headline had a 27% increase in requests over A because it added a promise of a benefit to a purely selective headline.

8. A Pulled three times as well! We originally ran it for women's handbags. But it pulls nearly as well for ANY product AS LONG AS THE PRODUCT IS IN DEMAND.

9. B Tests show you have an average of 20% better response because a picture is a better eye-catcher than words.

10. B True story. We actually did see them there first. And then went to look for them in New York. We thought we would tell the story as it happened. And sold out the first shipment the first day.

11. B This headline sold out the sweaters in two days. We have consistently used the same headline to sell everything from toys to clothing to food. Has curiosity and benefit in one headline.

12. B We liked A better. Thought it was a funny pun. But the customers either didn't catch on or didn't care. The second headline provoked their curiosity and they bought 50 jackets in 3 days.

13. A Pulled twice as good as B. The message in B has been repeated so often the audience was bored and few read it.

14. B The reason the headline made sense because it tied with the fact that most Volvos are driven for 11 years in Sweden. And by then it's paid for. Also economy reaches more people than comfort.

15. A. Pulled twice as much reader interest. The headline promises greater sales at little or no cost to the dealer.

16. A Pulled 50% better. Winning headline offered free information and only has four words.

17. A Offers practical advice to people considering buying stocks.

18. B No contest. A did very poorly. B was a result of asking buyers of the product WHY they bought the product. Their answer: "It feels good when my eyes are tired." The customer literally wrote the ad.

19. They are in reverse order: 5-4-3-2-1. Research revealed the word "free" used its customary magic as well as the words "how to."

20. A tie. Both pulled the same.
